WASHINGTON, MAY 14, 1880.

OUR special dispatch from Illinois dispels all doubt as to the vote of General GRANT's own state. The forty-two votes of Illinois will be cast in the Chicago convention for the ex-president. The miserable conspiracy against him in that state has failed.

In Nebraska the delegates so far to the state convention stand: GRANT, 74; BLAINE,

THE policy of a democratic congress is to raise the salaries of its own employes and ent down the emoluments of all republicans so far as is possible.

THE democrats in the house propose to get even with GRANT. They want to reduce the salary of the next president to $25,000 per year.

EVERY HANCOCK, THURMAN, HEN-DRICKS and BAYARD man in the country now stands with a broom in his hand trying to sweep back the rising TILDEN tide.

THE New York Herald is now engaged in working up a boom for HAMILTON FISH. IL day, but prograstigation has stolen its prospect of success.

THE first state gun in the great campaign of 1880 will be fired in Oregon in June next, but before either presidential nomination is made. State officers and legislature will be chosen.

WE hope congress will pass the bill providing for the privacy of telegraphic communications. It has been favorably reported from the committee, and its provisions seem to be wise and necessary.

IF the democrats can put out all the lights of the postoffices of the country and starve out the United States courts they will reach the beatitudes and speud the rest of their days in singing, "Hail Colum-" bia, Happy Land."

ONE thing congress has done with eminent success. It has shut off the gas and water from the principal postoffices and Kearneyism. court-rooms of the government in several cities. It seems to prefer darkness to light, supervisors, the third district of Iowa and the fourth Illinois.

WE have not room for Hon. W. S. KING's leiter to the FINLEY-DONNELLY committee, but we will state that he tells them that he has no time to waste voluntarily on such a case, but if they want him they have only to send for him and he will put in an appearance at once.

ADMIRAL AMMEN said the other day that the offer of the presidency of the Nicaraguan canal company, with a salary of $25,000 a year, is still open to GRANT. He United States with $50,000 a year salary, which is also open to him.
